ABOUT

KATIE HARGRAVE is an artist and educator based in Chattanooga, TN. Originally from Chicago, IL, Hargrave received a MFA in Intermedia from the University of Iowa, a MA in Cultural Production from Brandeis University, and a BFA from the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana. Beyond Like Riding a Bicycle, Hargrave is a member of the Think Tank that has yet to be named and also maintains an individual studio practice. She's been riding bikes all her life, though now that she lives in the mountains, her bike has a lot more gears. <http://katiehargrave.us>

BRETT HUNTER is an artist, educator, and facilitator living in Hornell, NY. He received BA in History and Art from Kalamazoo College in Michigan and an MFA in Sculpture from Bowling Green State University in Ohio. He is currently the co-director of the Hornell Community Arts Center and co-founder (with Angie To) of Broadway Union, an arts programming organization and set of physical spaces dedicated to linking artists and their work with the varied communities of Hornell, supporting committed citizens and their role in shaping the places they live. He thinks far too much about bikes and would much rather pedal up than coast down. <https://placenotes.net/>

HARGRAVE and HUNTER have been collaborating as Like Riding a Bicycle for two years. They are widely exhibited as individual artists, participating in over 150 exhibitions combined.
